

WE MEAN BUSINESS

When a man says he can sell you cheaper than the other fellow you will not believe him unless he can show you how he can do so. For there is no one that is going to sell you goods at less than cost, and you believe that everyone can sell just as cheap as the other fellow, unless he can show you where he can buy cheaper than his competitor. That is what we are going to prove to you right here. We have made New York our home for a number of years before coming to Bamberg, and while there we made good use of our time by getting on to where to buy goods the cheapest, just as you know who will sell you the cheapest in your town, so, therefore, we are better prepared to sell you goods cheaper than the other fellow because we know exactly where to go to buy them. We have put in an enormous stock, expecting a crop like we had last year, and therefore we have more goods than we know what to do with. We are compelled to raise money between now and the first of January and are, therefore, compelled to offer our immense stock at actual cost. We are not going to sell to you at less than cost, and we are not going to ask you one cent of profit, but just actual cost. We will offer you anything in our store, it matters not what it is, and if you will come in and look and make us a reasonable offer we will trade mighty quick. We have no fears of the result if you will come and look. We have anything needed in the line of Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Caps, Coat Suits, Cloaks, Underwear, Overcoats, and in fact everything carried in a first-class Mercantile establishment. If you do not find just what you want you will find something just as good that will take the place. Come to see us when you come to town to take in the big circus on the 27th, and if you have any goods to purchase, buy them of us and you will save enough to pay for your ticket. We are not attempting to quote prices, as there are too many kinds of goods for you to understand unless you can see them, so come and see, and we will do the rest. Remember the place and that the sale runs from

Monday, November 25th, to Tuesday, December 24th

FATAL ACCIDENT AND SUICIDE.

Two Violent Deaths Reported from Greenwood County.

Greenwood, Nov. 20.—Mr. P. A. Sanders, an aged man, died at the City Hospital here this morning as the result of injuries received in being thrown from his buggy yesterday in a runaway. His horse took fright at some dressed hogs hanging in his yard, ran away and threw Mr. Sanders out, his head striking a rock and practically crushing his skull. Mr. Sanders lived between Greenwood and Coronaca. He came here from Sumter county about 15 years ago. He served in the Confederate armies as a member of 2d Louisiana regiment. He leaves a wife and several children.

J. A. McClain, a farmer, shot and killed himself yesterday at his home, in this county, two miles south of Shoals Junction. Bad health and financial troubles are supposed to have caused him to commit suicide. He was a former resident of Greenwood, but moved away some years ago. He is survived by a wife and four children.

Divorce Suit of Pastor Heard.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Margaret G. Moore, wife of Rev. E. T. Moore, a Baptist clergyman, is the defendant in a divorce suit that is the special order in the Bibb superior court. In all, 216 witnesses have been summoned, mostly by the husband. Nearly ever resident of the Mercer University neighborhood, where the Moores formerly lived, is among the witnesses.

Rev. Mr. Moore charges that his wife was unfaithful to him, but that when he discovered this he hearkened to her appeals for sympathy, forgave her, and took her back as his wife. He says that, however, she betrayed his confidence a second time. Mrs. Moore, who is contesting the suit, says that her husband has put an entirely erroneous construction upon the visits of men to their home in his absence. Both sides have several lawyers, and the suit is being vigorously fought. The husband has already been granted a first verdict.

Rev. Mr. Moore attended Mercer University, and later preached at several Baptist churches in Bibb county. The couple have two children, a boy and a girl, who are now in possession of the mother, who lives in Eufaula, Ala.

VICTIM'S WIDOW TESTIFIES.

May Have Thrown Some Light on Husband's Murder.

Jonesboro, Ga., Nov. 22.—Testimony from Mrs. John King, wife of the well known farmer whose burned body was found last Sunday in the ruins of a small frame building, near the Hebron Primitive Baptist church, was given to-day in the coroner's investigation of the death mystery here.

Nothing is known of the evidence given by the widow, as the hearing is being held behind closed doors. Before testifying, however, Mrs. King made a statement to newspaper men, in which she said that William Edwards, one of the four men under arrest on suspicion pending the conclusion of the death investigation, called at the King home about a month ago and asked if King was there. Her husband, she said, told her to answer no. Mrs. King then said that Edwards attempted to come into the house over her protests, but that she finally persuaded him to leave. Afterwards, she asserted, her husband threatened "to settle with Edwards."

Detectives, who are working on the mystery, said to-day that they believe King was either killed or made unconscious and that his body was then taken to the building and it set on fire in hope of hiding the crime by entirely cremating the body.

AFFAIR CLOSED, SAYS MULBROW

Anderson Man Withdraws Warrants Against Cheshire Brothers.

Anderson, Nov. 23.—W. J. Muldrow to-day withdrew warrants charging assault and battery with intent to kill, sworn out by him a week ago, against V. B. and R. L. Cheshire, Jr., following a shooting affray in Muldrow's office, and resulting in the serious wounding of V. B. Cheshire. There has been bad feeling between Cheshire and Muldrow for some time. Mr. Muldrow announced to-day, in withdrawing the warrants, that so far as he is concerned, this will end the matter. Cheshire's condition improves daily and it is thought he will be out within a short time.

A number of men have decided to band together in Orangeburg and erect a church in a section having no churches to be known as the East side church, and to be non-denominational.

CHARGED WITH WIFE MURDER.

Indictment of Doctor Follows Exhumation of Woman's Body.

Springfield, O., Nov. 22.—The grand jury of Clark county this afternoon returned an indictment charging Dr. Arthur B. Smith, of this city, with murdering his wife, Florence Cavileer Smith, last March. Dr. Smith was immediately arrested by Sheriff Lawrence, at the office of his attorney and taken to the county jail, where he announced that he would see no one.

The indictment was the result of an investigation at the special session of the grand jury. The body of Mrs. Smith was exhumed a few weeks ago and a post mortem examination by Columbus experts made. Their report has not been published, but was presented to the grand jury.

Mrs. Smith was prominent socially and her death occurred suddenly March 18 of this year. Shortly before her body was exhumed, Dr. Smith was married to Miss Mabel Merchant, a nurse in the Springfield Hospital.

Interesting Lodge Meeting.

Ehrhardt, Nov. 22.—At the regular communication here of Harmony Lodge, No. 247, A. F. M., Thursday evening the proceedings were very interesting. Buckner, of Ravenel, S. C., and by A. W. Brabham, of Olar, S. C. Messrs. J. C. Kinard, J. B. Ramsey, A. F. Henderson, and Rev. B. D. Groseclose rendered valuable assistance. Democratic success Can Only Compare With Our sale Just Ended

We Have Confidence in Our Customers and They Have the Same in Us.

We don't flatter ourselves when we state that we sold merchandise without the least effort

We still have a good size stock on hand and the Christmas holidays are creeping in on us

As we are in need of all spare room, together with earnest solicitations from numbers of our patrons whom it was not convenient to attend regular sale on account of delays in gathering and marketing their crops, and then again, last but not least, enthused over the astonishing victory of the Democratic party and that they shall ever prevail, we have decided to continue the sale for thirty days more.

The same policy and rules of our previous advertisements will be strictly adhered to during these thirty extended sales days.

The strongest plank in the Democratic party is to reduce the tariff, ours is to reduce the present high price of men's and boys' clothing
